

In the early 1900's, local Indian Trader Charles Strausenback built the Trading Post to resemble the homes of the Pueblo Indians. Over the years, the Trading Post has expanded to become a premier Pikes Peak Area attraction. Today, the Trading Post has multiple conference facilities for your groups or events. Additionally, we can cater any of your functions. Please see our Facilities Menu Guide for all we have to offer.

We have hosted many meetings including:

- Business Meetings
- Training Sessions
- Team Building Seminars
- Breakfast Meetings
- Group Luncheons
- Military or Family Reunions
- Christmas Parties
- Workshops
- Receptions
- Club Socials
- Private Celebrations
- Weddings
- Retirements
- Retreats

... and so much more!

THE STRAUSENBACK PAVILLION

Our newest venue seats up to 105 people in a covered outdoor pavillion. In-house or outside catering events are available utilizing an outdoor kitchen. This facility has great views of the mountains and is steps away from the rest of our store. Facility rates are available upon request.

THE PATIO AT THE GALLERY

Perfect for your more intimate functions, this patio can accomodate up to 40 people. Our private patio is shaded and available throughout the summer season.

PEAK VIEW CONFERENCE CENTER

The crown jewel of our conference facilities, this 2400 square foot facility boasts its own private tiered patio garden, Southwest decor, phenomenal views of the Front Range, and numerous other amenities. The Conference Center is available year-round and can accomodate up to 130 people for social events.

THE PATIO AT THE BALANCED ROCK CAFÉ

Located in our café garden, this two-tiered, partially covered patio is perfect for mid-sized gatherings. The area is shaded with century-old Cottonwoods. The rustic setting is a pure pleasure to the senses. This semi-public space is available throughout the summer season.
